

Dr. Daniel F. Muzyka, the RBC Financial Group Professor of Entrepreneurship, is currently serving his second term as Dean of the Sauder School of Business at UBC. Dr. Muzyka was first appointed Dean in 1999.

Dr. Muzyka is an internationally recognized leader in the field of entrepreneurship. In addition to publishing in a number of management and entrepreneurship journals, Dr. Muzyka has edited and contributed to books and videos on entrepreneurship, including the Financial Time's Mastering Entrepreneurship series (now translated into five languages) and Mastering Innovation series.

Dr. Muzyka served as Chair of the Vancouver Board of Trade from 2005 to 2006, and is currently a member of the organization's Executive Committee and Board of Directors. Dr. Muzyka is also a member of the Premier's Technology Council, the BC Competition Council, and serves on the IIROC Board (Investment Industry Regulatory Organization of Canada).

Prior to joining UBC, Dr. Muzyka was the IAF Professor of Entrepreneurship at INSEAD (France), where he also served as Associate Dean of the MBA program and Director of the 3i Venturelab. Dr. Muzyka was previously a faculty member at Babson College, and was a visiting professor at the Harvard Business School.

Dr. Muzyka has previous experience in finance and corporate strategy at the General Electric Company, and spent five years as a strategy consultant, primarily with Braxton Associates (Boston). He has also served as a board member for several entrepreneurial and growth business ventures.

Before pursuing a career in business, Dr. Muzyka worked as a research associate in the field of astrophysics for a number of organizations, including the NASA-Goddard Institute for Space Studies (New York), the Max Planck Institute for Radio Astronomy (Germany) and the Owens Valley Radio Observatory (Caltech).

Dr. Muzyka has a BA from Williams College (Astrophysics), an MBA from the Wharton School (Corporate Strategy), and a DBA from the Harvard Business School.

SAUDER SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

The Sauder School of Business at the University of British Columbia is Canada's leading academic business school, maintaining an international reputation for excellence in research and learning, and unmatched global partnerships. The faculty has more than 2,700 students in Bachelors, Masters and PhD programs, and boasts over 29,000 alumni in 70 countries.

Located in Vancouver, rated by the Economist Intelligent Unit as the world's top city in its global liveability rankings, the school draws from the internationalism of the city and its Pacific Rim setting to provide an unrivalled global business perspective.

The school is situated in the heart of the spectacular UBC campus, home to forest, ocean and mountain vistas. A second campus, Robson Square, is located in the heart of Vancouver's bustling downtown peninsula.

The business school was renamed the Sauder School of Business in 2003 in recognition of the support and generosity of William Sauder, BCom 1948, Chancellor Emeritus of UBC and former Chairman of Interfor.
