

DeFosset, Don

Chairman & CEO
DJD Group

Don DeFosset, the principal of the DJD Group, is focused on Florida activities and has prior experience as Chairman, President and Ceo of Walter Industries, Chairman of James Hardie Industries and executive positions with numerous other publicly traded companies. DeFosset is also active in state, regional and local community affairs, including Board memberships on the Florida Chamber of Commerce, University of Tampa, Tampa Performing Arts Center, Boy & Girls Clubs of Tampa Bay, WEDU public Television, Chairman of the Florida Council on Economic Education and other civic & charitable organizations. He previously was appointed by the Governor as Chairman of the Tax Reform Committee. In addition, DeFosset serves on the public company Board of Directors of Terex Corporation, Regions Financial Bank, Enpro Industries and National Retail Properties.

DJD GROUP

The DJD Group is a multi-industry investment and operating enterprise with holdings in LNG Transportation, Real Estate, Health Care Insurance, Medical Instruments, Private Plane leasing, Wine Distribution, Performance Vehicle Component manufacturing, and various other areas of industrial activity with headquarters in Tampa, Florida.

