

Stecher, Giorgio

Member of the Board of Directors
Bancopopular-E.Com

Mr. Stecher is actuary from the “Escuela de Altos Estudios Mercantiles” in Madrid with the award for the best actuarial thesis. He is also a Doctor of Economics by the “Universidad Complutense” in Madrid. He is Guest Speaker at the Universities of Madrid, Murcia, Sevilla, Valladolid, Zaragoza, Santander and also at the “Università di Bologna” (Italy), at the “Escola Superior de Administração de Negócios –ESAN-“ (São Paulo, Brazil), at the IESE Institut (Barcelona, Spain), at the INSEAD (Fontainebleau, France), at the “American Bankers Association” (New York, USA), at the “University of Nuevo León” (Monterrey, México), at the “Associazione Nazionale Aziende di Credito” (Sorrento, Italy), at the “Club Finance” (Paris, France), at the “Lafferty Conferences” (London). His articles have been published in Spain, France, Italy, Brazil and the United States. In Brazil he is former General Manager of Companhia Adriatica de Seguros (1951-1958), former CEO of Bankinter (1959-1968), Banco Brasul (1968-1969), Banco Comercial Brasul (1969-1971), Banco União Comercial (1971-1974) (at present all of them are part of Banco Itaú). Former Vice-president of the European Economic and Social Committee, Brussels (1990-2002) representing the Spanish Bankers Association. His current position is Member of the Board of Directors of Bancopopular-e.com., member of the International Council of INSEAD (Fontainebleau, France), “Commendatore al merito della Repubblica Italiana”, Knight Commander of the “Ordem do Cruzeiro do Sul” and Founder member of “Amigos del Museo del Prado” (Spain).

BANCOPOPULAR-E.COM

GRUPO BANCO POPULAR is the third bank of Spain, with 136,000 shareholders, 15,000 employees, and 2,400 branches in Spain, Portugal and USA. Highlights 2009: Total assets managed 142 billions €, own funds 8.4 billion €, “Tier 1” 9%, Profit before tax 1 billion €, ROE 11%, operating efficiency 29,5%.