

Lopes, Luiz Ildefonso

Senior Managing Partner of Brookfield
Asset Management & CEO of Brookfield
Brazil
Brookfield Brazil

Luiz I. Simões Lopes is a Senior Managing Partner at Brookfield Asset Management in charge of Brookfield's operations in Brazil, and is the CEO of Brookfield Brazil.

Mr. Lopes has over 30 years of experience in capital markets. Prior to joining Brookfield, he was CEO and member of the board of directors of Magliano CTVM and Managing Director of Fiat Leasing and Banco Fiat.

Mr. Lopes is a member of the board of directors of the Brazilian Symphony Orchestra (OSB), the Rio de Janeiro Chamber of Commerce (ACRJ) and the Brazil-Canada Chamber of Commerce (CCBC).

Luiz obtained his degree in Business Administration from Faculdade Moraes Júnior and his Capital Markets specialization from Fundação Getúlio Vargas.

BROOKFIELD BRAZIL

Brookfield Brazil is a private equity asset manager and a wholly owned subsidiary of Brookfield Asset Management Inc. Brookfield began investing and operating in Brazil in 1899 and currently has 5,300 employees. Brookfield Brazil maintains one of the largest investment platforms in the country with approximately R$16 billion managed on its own behalf and on behalf of its institutional clients, invested in property, renewable power, agriculture and timberland assets in addition to financial and insurance brokerage services. Brookfield Asset Management is a global asset manager with more than US$100 billion of assets under management.