

Breno de Campos

Substitute Member of the Fiscal Council

- Mechanical Production Engineering, 1974 and Master degree in Administration, 1976, both from UFMG.
- Finance Specialist “Diploma with Distinction” by Maastricht School of Management, Netherlands, Dutch Gov. Scholarship Holder (NUFFIC).
- MBA in Finance from IBMEC MG
- Improvement Courses: Corporate Finance at Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania, USA and Macroeconomics at London School of Economics, England, British Council Scholar.
- Light Metal Award for Mechanical Engineering, 1973.
- Agnelo de Macedo Award - UFMG Gold Medal, 1974.
- He worked at Usiminas for 25 years where he worked in the financial area as a Senior Analyst (financial operations and planning).
- Currently works as a consultant in Economic-Financial Analysis of Projects and Evaluation of Companies and Businesses.
- Co-author of the book “Finanças Corporativas – Teoria e Prática Empresarial no Brasil”, 2008. FDC Ed. Elsevier Campus.
- Mr. Campos is an Affiliate professor of Finance at FDC.