

NATIONAL FLAG/ COMPANY'S FLAG

DeFosset, Don

Chairman & CEO
DJD Group

As founder & principal, DeFosset leads the The DJD Group with investments and operations in multiple industries. Previously DeFosset was Chairman, President and CEO of Walter Industries, Chairman of James Hardie Industries and also held senior executive positions with Dura Automotive, Navistar, AlliedSignal, Mack Trucks, and Rockwell International. He serves on the Executive Board of MidOcean Partners, a New York based private equity firm. In addition, DeFosset serves on the public company Board of Directors of Terex Corporation, Regions Financial Bank, ITT Corporation and National Retail Properties.

DeFosset was appointed by the Governor of Florida to the Tampa Sports Authority and previously as Chairman of the State of Florida Tax Reform Committee. He is also active in state, regional and local community affairs, including Co-Chairman of the 2012 RNC Tampa Host committee for the Republican National Convention, Chairman of the University of Tampa Board of Trustees and Board memberships in the Florida Chamber of Commerce, Tampa Performing Arts Center, WEDU Public Television and other civic & charitable organizations including the Florida Council of 100.

DeFosset is a graduate of Purdue University where he earned a bachelor's degree in Industrial Engineering and Harvard University where he earned an MBA.

He resides in Tampa, Florida.

DJD GROUP

The DJD Group is a multi-industry investment and operating enterprise with holdings in LNG Transportation, Real Estate, Health Care Insurance, Medical Instruments, Private Plane leasing, Wine Distribution, Performance Vehicle Component manufacturing, and various other areas of industrial activity with headquarters in Tampa, Florida.

