

NATIONAL FLAGCOMPANY'S
FLAG

Ramon O'Callaghan

DEAN AND DIRECTOR

PORTO BUSINESS SCHOOL, UNIVERSITY
OF PORTO

/ University of Porto

Ramon O'Callaghan is Dean of Porto Business School (PBS), University of Porto, since 2015. He is member of the EFMD Accreditation Board, the EDAF committee, and the International Advisory Council of FDC in Brazil. He is also Chairman of the Board of ISM in Lithuania.

He was the founding Dean of the Graduate School of Business at Nazarbayev University in Kazakhstan (2013-2015), a school set up with the Fuqua School of Business at Duke University. Earlier, he was professor at Tilburg University (1997-2012), in the Netherlands, where he held several senior positions: Dean of the business school (Tias), Associate Dean, Director of MSc programs, and Director of the International Executive MBA. Other positions included: Director of Deusto Business School and Vice-Rector, University of Deusto in Bilbao, Spain (2006-2009), MBA Director at Nyenrode University, Netherlands (1994-1997); assistant professor at IESE (1989-1993), and researcher at Harvard Business School (1985-1987).

His professional experience also includes executive education, research and consulting projects for European, American and Asian organizations. He has coordinated and participated in several projects of the European Commission and has taught in executive programs of IESE, INSEAD, London Business School, MIT Sloan, Purdue University, and Solvay Brussels. Prior to his academic career, he worked several years at Texas Instruments.