

NATIONAL FLAG/ COMPANY'S FLAG

Xiang, Bing

Founding Dean
Cheung Kong Graduate School of Business

Bing Xiang is the founding dean of Cheung Kong Graduate School of Business .Prior to CKGSB, Dr. Xiang pioneered the EMBA program at Peking University's Guanghua School of Management and served on the faculty at Hong Kong University of Science and Technology.

Dr. Xiang is a well-known management consultant and also serves as an independent board member for corporations listed in Hong Kong and China. His research interests include comparative corporate systems, corporate governance, transition and management of state-owned enterprises, business models of family-owned enterprises and corporate competitiveness in emerging markets. He received his Ph.D. from University of Alberta, Canada, and his Bachelor's degree from Xi'an Jiaotong University, China.

CHEUNG KONG GRADUATE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS (CKGSB)

Cheung Kong Graduate School of Business (CKGSB), established in 2002, is China's first non-profit, independent business school. CKGSB's mission is to generate world-class insights on management theory and practice, and to develop business leaders for a new era of global business in China and beyond. Headquartered in Beijing, CKGSB has satellite campuses in Shanghai and Shenzhen, and a network of international offices in London, New York, and Hong Kong. CKGSB offers MBA, FMBA, EMBA, and executive education programs. For more information, please visit <http://www.cheungkong-gsb.com/>

