

NATIONAL FLAG/ COMPANY'S FLAG

Almeida, Emerson de

Co-founder & President of the Board Committee
Fundação Dom Cabral

Emerson de Almeida was the Dean of Fundação Dom Cabral since its creation in 1976 until 2012, when he became President of the Board Committee. He has a Bachelor degree in Economics from the College of Economic Sciences – Universidade Federal de Minas Gerais. He also has a “Maitrise” from the University of Paris – Institut Français de Presse – (1972).

Dean Almeida has guided the negotiations to implement the alliances with INSEAD (France), Kellogg (USA) and University of British Columbia (Canada). He is currently guiding the implementation of a network corporation among business schools in Latin America and BRICs (Brazil, Russia, India and China). Dean Almeida has directed the implementation of the FDC Partnership projects with companies; currently, FDC has almost 700 associated companies. He is a member of the International Advisory Council of Guanghua Business School (Peking University), the International INSEAD Council (France), and was elected in 2010 by the Brazilian magazine Época (Special Edition) one of the 100 most influential Brazilians. He is the author of the book “Plantando Carvalhos - Fundamentos da Empresa Relevante”, Campus Press, 2011, which is the second edition of “Fundamentos da Empresa Relevante – Meu aprendizado na FDC”, Campus Press, 2006, and has many articles written.