

Wilson Nélío Brumer is the CEO of Usiminas and was Chairman of the Management Board of the company from 2008 to 2010. He is also co-founder and partner of Winbros Participações, Gestão e Empreendimentos.

From 2003 to 2007 he was the Secretary of Economic Development for the State of Minas Gerais, responsible for the coordination of funding towards fostering industry, trade, and service sector. During that period, he also chaired the Management Boards of Cemig, Companhia de Desenvolvimento Econômico de Minas Gerais, and Instituto de Desenvolvimento Integrado de Minas Gerais, and was the Vice-President of the Management Board of Banco de Desenvolvimento de Minas Gerais (BDMG).

Wilson Brumer also chaired the Management Board of BHP Billiton, Brazil (1998-2002) and was the CEO of Acesita (1992-1998) and Vale (1990-1992). From 1997 to 1999 he presided the Board of Directors of Instituto Brasileiro de Siderurgia (IBS), currently called Instituto Aço Brasil (IABr).

GRP INVESTIMENTOS

GRP Investimentos is an independent asset management organization focused on gathering knowledge and on economic and financial analysis and assessment of economic segments, companies and assets as potential targets for investments. To achieve the best results, GRP Investimentos combines professional management of resources with experience and technical expertise in many areas.

On creating GRP Investimentos, its members, after more than 15 years of experience in financial markets, were able to implement principles, values and techniques adopted by investment banks all over the world. Consequently, more effective strategies may be developed and implemented to make your investment more successful.

Transparency, credibility and commitment help GRP Investimentos achieve excellence in products and services.

NATIONAL FLAG/ COMPANY'S FLAG

Brumer, Wilson

CEO
B&P Investimentos e Participações

